Ron Cutler

Ron Cutler comes from Calabasas, CA. He started out as DJ at the age of eighteen, in Philadelphia. He continued in the radio business, owning radio stations and eventually creating a radio network and a production company where he created, wrote and produced twenty successful national radio shows. He's always had the desire to write a novel and after writing and researching for the last five years has completed the journey with his just released first novel, The Secret Scroll.

Mara Purl

Growing up in Japan, Mara has been writing since the age of 12. Ten minutes after graduation from Bennington, she moved to New York, working there as a journalist. She worked for the Financial Times of London, the Associated Press, and even freelanced for Rolling Stone. She's written screenplays, created a soap opera, worked as an actress, and now writes novels. Her Milford-Haven series is planned as a 12 books series, of which she has completed three, including What the Heart Knows.

David Lawrence

David's cookbook, Boy Eats World! A Private Chef Cooks Simple Gourmet is all about having fun in the kitchen and strives to demystify cooking for a generation that grew up playing Atari, not watching Martha whip up homemade marshmallows. David's refreshing, often humorous style and easy to follow recipes will help even the most timid cook feel at home in the kitchen. David lives in Los Angeles with his French bulldogs, Carly and Tucker.

Dora Levy Mossanen

Born in Israel and raised in Iran, Dora Levy Mossanen fled to the United States at the onset of the Islamic Revolution. She is the recipient of the San Diego Editor's Choice award and the author of Harem, and Courtesan, both of which have been translated into numerous languages. She is a graduate of the USC masters of professional writing program and lives in Beverly Hills, California.

Tab Hunter

A product of Hollywood's golden age, Tab Hunter became Hollywood's golden boy. His first starring role, at the tender age of 19, was in the romantic South Seas adventure, Island of Desire. An instant success, Tab went on to star in more than 50 major motion pictures, including the Academy Award-nominated Damn Yankees. Tab also released one of the top records of the rock-n-roll era, "Young Love," which zoomed to #1 on the charts worldwide and knocked Elvis Presley out of the top spot. His autobiography, Tab Hunter: Confidential, was a national bestseller.
